ELIZABETHTOWN MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO ASSAULTING MILITARY POLICE ON FORT KNOX

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that STEPHEN M. LINDSEY, age 28, of 298 Amy Avenue, Elizabethtown, Kentucky, in Hardin County, pled guilty to assault of a federal law enforcement officer on Fort Knox.

The maximum potential penalty for this offense is 8 years imprisonment, a $250,000 fine, and 3 years supervised release.

Lindsey admitted that on August 5, 2006, he became drunk and passed out in the home of a family living on Fort Knox. When he would not leave, Military Police were called to come remove him. Once those Military Police arrived, Lindsey became violent and had to be restrained. As he was being put in the patrol car, Lindsey physically assaulted one of the Military Policemen.

The case was prosecuted by Special Assistant United States Attorney Dan E. Stigall and was investigated by the United States Army, Fort Knox Military Police Investigations Section.

The plea was entered before Dave Whalin, Judge, United States District Court, Louisville, Kentucky.

Lindsey is scheduled to be sentenced before Judge Thomas B. Russell on March 19, 2007, at 12:00 p.m., in Louisville, Kentucky.
